Passport to a Different Land

The Michigan Health Sciences Library Association will provide a passport for your journey to the sovereign lands of the Saginaw Chippewa Tribe located on the Isabella Reservation near Mt. Pleasant. The passport will include information to make your stay more enjoyable and opportunities to learn about Native American culture while gathering stamps (VISAs) toward prizes.

The turtle has special significance to the Anishinabek as the earth rests on his back.

The Anishinabek respect the eagle as the messenger between human beings and the spiritual world.

Baskets made by the Anishinabek are made of either black ash, birch bark, or sweet grass.
